Why we want you

Our Youth Advisors use their voices to influence and work with Save the Children to make positive change. It's important that what Save the Children do, and say, represents what young people really care about.

What you will be doing

- Campaign on child poverty in the UK
- Work together to influence and shape decisions across Save the Children's work
- Choose to take part in a range of unique experiences such as meetings with politicians, delivering speeches at events, and engaging with media
- A two-year commitment
- Attend a virtual meeting on the first Wednesday of every month, from 5pm-7pm
- Attend three in person meetings a year: Two one-day meetings in spring and autumn at a Save the Children office, and a summer residential

The skills you need

- Passion and a willingness to share your ideas
- Comfortable working in a team
- Ability to actively listen to others and be mindful of their views
- Interest to learn and work alongside others to create change

What's in it for you

- The chance to influence and shape how Save the Children works
- Training to build skills like public speaking, writing, influencing and networking
- Support from staff with regular check ins
- Meet new people and create new friendships
- Expenses covered for any meetings or events in person

Disclaimer

We are committed to protecting and keeping children safe. We select, check and manage our volunteers to make sure that we are able to do this. All volunteers and staff must agree to and follow our code of conduct. Any questions about becoming a volunteer?
